Accompanied Out of Hours Security

Our Mobile Security out of hours presence service provides a professional PSA licensed Officer to accompany a member of your staff when locking up and leaving your premises late at night.

Professional PSA licensed Officer being there to provide a professional security presence when your premises need to be opened very early in the mornings for the start of your working day.

These professional security presences can also be availed of at the weekends day and night as well as bank holidays.

We can also arrange for a PSA professional licensed Mobile Security Officer to act as a proxy member of staff, for example when a contractor needs to access your premises out of hours.

We will collect your keys, or meet a member of your staff at the premises, accompany the contractor whilst they are in your building and then ensure your premises are locked and secured.

We also offer a transport escort service which involves one of our marked vehicles accompanying any valuable goods vehicles from location A to B, whether it is a short or long distance. The vigilance and awareness of our licensed officers ensures that there is constant assessing of the area for any outside threat to the safe transportation of goods.
