For the best security for your home, family or business you need a good combination of physical and electronic security devices.

At Securitas Security Services Ireland we provide you with the best of both.

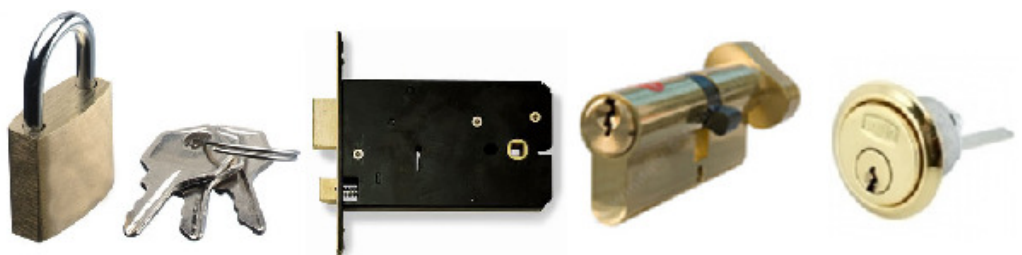

Our Monitored Alarm, CCTV, Intercom and Automatic Gate Systems provide the best electronic protection and our dedicated team of locksmiths provide the best physical protection.

Our locksmiths can fit a full range of locking devices to windows and doors of all shapes and sizes whether constructed of timber, aluminium, steel or uPVC.

We can also fit specialised locking systems such as electric mortice locks and magnetically operated locks for use in conjunction with our access control systems.
