Safes

For the best security for your home, family or business you need a good combination of physical and electronic security devices.

At Securitas Security Services Ireland we provide you with the best of both.

Our Monitored Alarm, CCTV, Intercom and Automatic Gate Systems provide the best electronic protection and our dedicated team of locksmiths provide the best physical protection.

Our managed locksmiths can install a wide range of safes with digital code and key locking systems.

We have many different safe types on display such as small 'home' safes, 'socket' safes, under floor, wall mounted and freestanding units. We can also cater for document storage with water and fireproof document safes.
